

Frequently Asked Questions:

What is the max grant request?

The Foundation for Health will be awarding three grants up to $15,000.

Only ONE brief proposal is permitted from each organization.

Funding will not support endowment or capital costs, research on drug therapies or devices, or lobbying.

Who can apply for funding?

Eligible organizations include governmental agencies, Universities, Colleges, and public charities that are tax exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Organizations must be Idaho based and the target population must be Idaho children. Only ONE brief proposal is permitted from each organization.

Can organizations apply together?

Partnerships and consortiums are highly encouraged. Examples include:

- School districts submitting a grant request together
- Organizations working together to provide a training in multiple regions
- Across disciplines and sectors

What type of projects/programs will be funded?

Training Topics:

Training topics could include but are not limited to the following topics:

- Opportunities to improve:
 - Self-image
 - Self-esteem
- Bullying
- Social interaction
- Emotional wellbeing
- Common mental health challenges among youth
- Recognizing warning signs

Target Audience:

Trainings are for individuals who work with or interact with youth, for example:

- Parents
- Teachers
- Child care providers
- After-school staff

- Medical providers
- Behavioral health professionals

Priority will be given to applications that are training individuals who are working with youth in junior high.

What is the timeframe for the grant?

Grant funds will be issued before the end of December 2015. Training(s) can begin January 2016 and be completed before December 2016.

What is the application process?

One proposal per organization may be submitted for consideration. Please utilize the proposal template available on the Foundation website. Instructions are included on the template.

The deadline for proposals is 5pm MST November 4, 2015.

Please e-mail proposals to grants@bcidahofoundation.org.

Are there guidelines and templates for the proposal?

Please utilize the proposal template available on the Foundation website. Instructions are included on the template.

What are the application deadlines?

Deadline for proposal submission is November 4, 2015

Grant decisions will be announced mid-December.